

$100 NFA Trusts – Gun Rights Restoration – Affordable Flat Fee Legal Services

What are the benefits of using a trust to buy NFA items?

There are numerous benefits to using an NFA trust to purchase NFA items instead of acquiring them as an individual.

ATF Regulatory Benefits

- Trust applicants do not need to get CLEO signoff
- Trust applicants do not need to get fingerprinted
- Trust applicants do not need to get photographed
- Trust applicants may use the new, significantly faster eForms system (when available)

Expanded Usability of Your NFA Item

- The creator of a trust may name any number of joint trustees
- Any trustee may make unlimited use of trust assets
- Any trustee may allow shooting acquaintances to shoot trust assets in their presence

Estate Planning Benefits

- Trust assets avoid probate
- Trust assets pass tax-free on a form 5 to named beneficiaries
- Trust assets may be held for underage beneficiaries
- Successor trustees are given detailed instructions on how to handle NFA items

Asset Protection Benefits

- Trust assets do not become contraband when trustees become disqualified
- Trustees who become disqualified are automatically removed from the trust
- The trust retains ownership of trust assets for the benefit of beneficiaries
